Department: Village Manager's Office

Interview of Anayah Menzies-Thomas for Appointment to Youth Commission - term ending 4/30/2021

Anayah Thomas is a sophomore at a District 214 high school. She feels it is important to get the insight teens have about school programs, community programs, and what's happening in the community. She likes how Arlington Heights listens to the teens in the community. She looks forward to meeting other young people who are involved with the community and will bring her positive attitude and creative ideas to the Youth Commission.
