Department: Village Manager's Office

Interview of Riley Phillips for appointment to the Youth Commission (youth member) term ending April 30, 2025.

Riley is a freshman at a local high school and is interested in volunteering on the Youth Commission. She is involved in tennis and Symphony Orchestra all while receiving academic high honors. Riley understands the long-lasting impact a community can have on it's residents as her father grew up in Arlington Heights and the positive influence the community had on him is the reason he chose to return and raise a family in Arlington Heights.
