Minutes for Special Events Commission Meeting: April 13, 2022

Meeting called to order by Laurie Mitchell at 7:05 p.m.

- Present: Chair Laurie Mitchell, Kelly Barash, Karen DeZellar, Christopher Fahnoe, Jennifer Eichorn, Steve Fromm, Colleen Gaughan, Michelle Harris, David Jaffe, Diane Jamieson, Steve Neill, Kevin Seifert
- Absent: Keri Stanley
- Also Present: Village Manager Randall Recklaus and Staff Liaison Avis Meade

Motion to approve minutes from March 9 made by David Jaffe and with a second by Kevin Seifert.

OLD BUSINESS

- Hearts of Gold 2022
 - Planning of Hearts of Gold for April 24th continued. RSVPs began slow, but attendance is confirmed at 77 with more RSVPs expected. This is comparable to years past.
- Harmony Fest 2022
 - Village Manager Randy Recklaus was in attendance to discuss potential options for Harmony Fest 2022, including reducing the event from a 2-day event to a 1-day event. Planning of the event will move forward and updates will be provided to the Special Events Commission. Commissioners requested the Village explore the possibility of defining the scope of the event by a specific date, in order to move forward with planning.
 - An entertainment contract for Mike and Joe has been provided to commission and will be sent to the Village Manager's Office for consideration.

NEW BUSINESS

- New 2023 Event Discussion
 - The Commission would like to explore the idea of a sustainability focused, family friendly event in April 2023. Staff will inquire as to whether or not the Public Works facility could be opened for a community event at this time. Forestry would be included as the event would coincide with Earth Month.

OTHER BUSINESS

- Steve Neill shared updates from the Arlington Heights Park District, including upcoming special events and programs that are available.

ADJOURNMENT

- A motion was made by Kevin Seifert and seconded by Steve Neill to adjourn the meeting at 8:00 p.m.
