V. Old Business

A. Community Survey

Commissioner Jordan shared the latest version of the resident survey she and Youth Commissioner Neacy had written after receiving input from the other members of the Commission. There was a discussion about removing climate change from the survey, or breaking it into separate issues. Commissioner Jordan said she had been in contact with the Village Communication and Outreach Coordinator about sending the final version to residents in appropriate formats.

Commissioner Sawyer moved to make the proposed changes to the survey and forward it to Village staff for dissemination, Commissioner Flores seconded the Motion. The Motion passed unanimously.

B. Mission Statement

Commissioner Jordan also shared a finalized version of a Commission mission statement after input from other members. It read:

The Environmental Commission's mission is to advocate for sound environmental policies and foster environmental awareness and involvement in our community. In support of this, we will cooperate, advise, educate, and promote mutual dialogue among Village officials, residents and businesses of Arlington Heights.

Commissioner Eisenhardt moved to approve the Commission mission statement, Commissioner Flores seconded the Motion. The Motion passed unanimously.

VI. New Business
