Liaison Report

Liaison Colagrossi reported on the progress of the Arlington Heights Senior Center Facebook page since launching on December 31, 2024. So far the page had 220 followers, with a reach of 3.2K. Liaison Colagrossi presented graphs of the progress so far and will present the data monthly. Feedback from the Village has been positive and encouraging.

Liaison Colagrossi presented the subcommittee with the 2025 Age-Friendly Marketing Plan draft for review. After many constructive additions and feedback, a final draft will be reviewed at the February meeting for approval and to be presented at the regular commission meeting.

V. OLD BUSINESS

The Senior Citizens Commission Age-Friendly Housing Affordability Listening session scheduled for January 29 at 5 pm at the Senior Center, had 10 people advance register and walk ins are welcome. The flyer was updated to include specific details regarding older adults and what affordable housing is. The event was promoted through the eblast, Facebook page, newsletter, and traditional flyers.

VI. NEW BUSINESS

The subcommittee reviewed a flyer for a listening session at the Senior Center on January 29 at 5 p.m. Commissioner Carter noted that we can offer ADA accommodations, which are included in our newsletter for the session. The subcommittee discussed that the flyer should include specific details on affordable housing and how it affects older adults. They also recommended that it be mainly distributed through e-blasts and social media.
