Liaison Report

Liaison Colagrossi reported on the progress of the Senior Center Facebook page. There are 367 followers, and the most activity for the month was on March 26 showing a video “boomerang” of an intergenerational chair volleyball match.

In addition, Liaison Colagrossi reviewed the outcome of the Arlington Heights Roadshow event held on April 4, 2025. The event was marketed through the Eventbrite platform and the eblast. As a result, thirty-two people joined in the bowling event. Mostly new faces were present as well as familiar friends brought new people. The participants will be tracked on participation at the Senior Center throughout a year.

Liaison Colagrossi also presented the revised Transportation Resources flyer noting that the Transportation/Affordable Housing Subcommittee reviewed and provided feedback. Additionally, the subcommittee reviewed the Housing and Aging in Place resource flyer and provided feedback for improvement.
