Item: Interview of Robert Brodecki for appointment to the Housing Commission effective May 1, 2026, term ending April 30, 2029

Department: Integrated Services

Item Description:

Robert has a passion for housing policy which stems from a strong belief that a thriving community must be a place for all, from younger generations seeking a place to start their lives, to older residents looking to retire in place. Robert actively engages with the Strong Towns movement which emphasizes empowering local communities to build more locally driven, adaptive, financially resilient places.
